Moving Current / NEWGrounds Choreographic Residency At the Florida Dance Festival

Application Deadline: April 18, 2017 - Notification April 30th

This 9 day residency at the Florida Dance Festival is sponsored by Moving Current and the Florida Dance Association. As the Choreographer in Residence, artists receive on campus housing, rehearsal space, mentoring, classes at the festival, and a full public performance of their work. Choreographers are selected by a panel of dance professionals based on the artistic excellence of the work samples submitted. If you are accepted there is a fee of $250, paid by May 31.

Eligibility: The residency is open to established and emerging Choreographers that have been working at a professional level for a minimum of three years. All genres of dance are welcome.

To Apply: Applications and links to Work samples must be submitted electronically.
All materials must be received on April 18, 2017 by 11:59 pm

About Work Samples

Please submit your Work Samples electronically by sending us an online link (Dropbox, Vimeo, Google Drive or YouTube are accepted) with any necessary password information. All materials must be RECEIVED by April 18th 2017

- The work sample should have 3-minute excerpts from 3 separate pieces, clearly marked with your name. (See below for important work sample information.)
Please be sure to include the work sample information page 2 of the application form.
- Check to make sure your link and passwords work

Do NOT send highly edited promotional material or spliced samples. We are interested in three contiguous minutes of sustained choreography from 3 different pieces, not “highlights.” Over-edited samples will be disqualified.

- Send excerpts from three different pieces of choreography to demonstrate your range.

Solo material is acceptable for one, but not more of your work samples.

- Your samples must be of work choreographed by you.
- Be sure to use quality samples
- Do not submit dark work samples or samples with poor visibility.
